DEDICATION

The Class of 1974 dedicates the yearbook to William Heinrich. Bill is a graduate student in the PCOG department, while assisting in the undergraduate PCOG labs. Bill has become a good friend to many members of the class and is affectionately known to most of us as "Captain Kangaroo."

Bill is very aware of the trials and tribulations of student life. He gladly lends a sympathetic ear to our problems and offers advice to help solve them. Bill is our friend. He shares our joys and sorrows in many settings. He is the best drinking buddy our class has had. We sadly leave Bill in the Pharmacy school, but we will take many fond memories into our professional lives.

Thank you, Bill, for being our friend!

Captain Kangaroo

"I heor they are dedicating the yeorbook to you!"

"Me! Me! They're dedicating me!"

DEAN'S MESSAGE

Frustrotion is on adverse reoction thot con develop when new progroms or concepts do not evolve as smoothly or os ropidly as originolly conceived. While often unpredictoble, it con be seen, as is the case which will occur when you enter into the proctice of phormocy. The educotional program thot you've just completed hos prepored you to provide phormoceutical services beyond those usuolly seen in the troditional proctice of pharmacy. The efforts to utilize your educotion ond expand the pharmacist's professional role will be met by resistance, both from within ond without our profession — o couse of predictable frustration. It is importont that you do not ollow this to impede you in whot should be common gools for you, the proctitioner, ond for us, the educators — the improvement of potient care ond the strengthening of our profession.

The essential man in the operation of a large chain of drug stores is the district manager. He has direct supervisory responsibility for 12 to 20 stores and shares in their profits. Peoples' district managers are a true cross section of the Peoples management philosophy; experienced seniors and bright young men; dedicated professionals who also have a flair for imaginative merchandising. But above all, men who care about people, that's what Peoples is all about. Peoples needs more men like them, perhaps like you . . .

Your role will be an important one. You'll be their living link with the fast-paced, ever-growing, always-new world of pharmaceuticals.

You'll be their man with the answers. An Upjohn representative. Physicians, pharmacists, hospital administrators... they will all know your company and its products. And respect them.

They'll listen to you. They'll know that when you speak, you speak with authority based on depth education and hard work.

If you'd like to work with professionals in a growing, profitable organization, write to Director of Professional Relations, The Upjohn Company, Kalamazoo, Michigan 49001.
